 - c) "ABS" will be recorded in the school report card for students who are absent for the assessment day.

- 4) The Chinese Reading Comprehension Test
- The Chinese Reading Comprehension Test is conducted on a "Criterion Referenced Testing" form to assess students' cross-year academic performance and to analyze the success of our curriculum. Therefore, teachers will not return the paper to parents after checking the answers with students. However, if parents want to know the reading assessment performance of their child, they can come to school to check the test paper. Parents should inform the subject teacher if they wish to do this.

As the pandemic is still developing, please pay close attention to the latest announcements from the government and the school via ClassDojo. Thank you very much!
